

Bonus Terms & Conditions

I, Baseke Kaisala, owner of account number 20505, email address luciekaisala@hotmail.com, (hereinafter "the client" or "You") hereby verify and agree with the below Bonus Terms & Conditions.

InvestTeck provides promotional offers to all their account holders. The bonus is an additive amount matching your initial deposit. Bonuses grant the account holder an extra boost to their trading balance. While providing additional principal, Bonuses are dependent on InvestTeck's terms and conditions, which could be modified by InvestTeck's at any time. Any bonus that has been added to your account is based on the following Bonus Terms and Conditions:

- 1. Bonuses shall be attributed to the client's trading account subject to compliance satisfaction as per the explicit terms of the proposal made to the client. Withdrawal of profits gained with bonus, as any other type of withdrawal, will be subject to a minimum required amount of 'Trader Points'. Every 1 USD/EUR/GBP bonus amount will require 0.1 Trader Points in order to be eligible for withdraw. Trader Points are scored by trading: every Lot of Forex asset in account currency will add 1 point to the trader score. For example: the client has a \$100 bonus and made \$1,000 profits. In order to withdraw these profits, he needs to achieve  $100 \times 0.1 = 10$  Trader Points. At the time of the achieved fulfillment of the required trading volume, InvestTeck trading account terms and conditions shall apply for any subsequent request to withdraw funds.
- 2. The acceptance of a bonus is the clients' agreement to the above-stated Terms and Conditions.

IMPORTANT: For a bonus to be awarded to the client's trading account, all terms & conditions herein stated, in addition to any strict compliance documentation must be confirmed and this here Bonus Agreement must be dated and signed by the client's own handwriting and deposited with the InvestTeck compliance department. For additional information, you are invited to contact the InvestTeck support team and/or by reaching out to your personal account manager. All bonuses are absolute. Thus, once a bonus has been applied to an account, it remains in that account. Withdrawal amounts made by the client will be suspended if the relevant trading volume amount has not been satisfied.

Any sign of cash-back manipulation, fraud, or arbitrage or other forms of devious or illegal activity regarding the award or provision of any trading bonus will in effect render the client's trading account null and void, including deferment of any profits amassed in the life of the account.

With all the above being mentioned; when you trade with bonus leverage you need to be cautious. It may be appealing to trade with \$15,000, when you actually made a deposit of only \$10,000, but there is a downside. You may close higher trades and make more money initially (or in the long run), but you can also lose a lot more money. Option trading can be risky, and you need to trade with confidence and responsibility to avoid losses. Withdrawal of profits gained with a bonus, as any other type of withdrawal, will be subject to a minimum required amount of 'Trader Points'. Every 1 USD/EUR/GBP bonus amount will require 0.1 Trader Points in order to be eligible to withdraw. Trader Points are scored by trading: every Lot of Forex asset in account currency will add 1 point to the trader score. For example: the client has a \$100 bonus and made \$1,000 profits. In order to withdraw these profits, he needs to achieve  $100 \times 0.1 = 10$  Trader Points. Meaning after reaching 10 FX Lots of trades, the bonus and the profits can be released to client's bank account, if requested.
